

Please practice reading out loud.

Make a video of you reading this out loud.

On the video - start with: My Name is _____.

Speak loudly and clearly.

Enunciate - let your mouth really move around the words.

Not too fast!

Make every Woo Hoo! like a real cheer - really high in your voice!

Grade 1

"Have you been feeling kind of low? A little lost? A little slow?

Well, I can help you! Yes, indeed!

I know exactly what you need!

You need a friend to wave and cheer! And you're in luck! I'm here! Right here!

Are you learning how to skate? Woo Hoo! Woo Hoo! You're doing great!

Did you teach yourself to bake? Woo Hoo! Woo Hoo! You made a cake!

From Woo Hoo! You're doing great! By Sandra Boynton

Grade 2

"Have you been feeling kind of low? A little lost? A little slow?

Perhaps unsure of what to do? And how to do it? Is that you?

Well, I can help you! Yes, indeed!

I know exactly what you need!

You need a friend to wave and cheer! And you're in luck! I'm here! Right here!

Are you learning how to skate? Woo Hoo! Woo Hoo! You're doing great!

Did you teach yourself to bake? Woo Hoo! Woo Hoo! You made a cake!

It's often very nice to hear an encouraging word, a kindly cheer.

But I think perhaps the best Woo Hoo is the one you say each day to you."

Grade 3

“Have you been feeling kind of low? A little lost? A little slow?

Perhaps unsure of what to do? And how to do it? Is that you?

Are you feeling quite upended? Underprepared and overextended?

Well, I can help you! Yes, indeed!

I know exactly what you need!

You need a friend to wave and cheer! And you’re in luck! I’m here! Right here!

There’s surely nothing more fantastic than someone who’s enthusiastic!

Are you learning how to skate? Woo Hoo! Woo Hoo! You’re doing great!

Did you teach yourself to bake? Woo Hoo! Woo Hoo! You made a cake!

It’s often very nice to hear an encouraging word, a kindly cheer.

But I think perhaps the best Woo Hoo is the one you say each day to you.”

All from Woo Hoo! You’re doing great! By Sandra Boynton